

Give slippery chopping boards the chop !

Prevent your chopping board from slipping and sliding while you work by placing a wet cloth or wet piece of carlton towel underneath your board. This locks your board in place, ensuring no movement from the board while you chop. Making you work faster, more efficiently and safer !